A Magic Weekend for Everyone!

Magic: The Gathering® fans from all over the country gather for U.S. Nationals to share their enthusiasm for the game during the course of an unforgettable Magic Weekend. This is an extraordinary opportunity for Magic players to meet the best in the country and find out what goes on in the professional circuit, where Magic is not just an exciting game but a whole way of life. The presence of pros is all the more certain this year because, for the first time in the tournament's history, there will be Pro Points at stake making U.S. Nationals an integral part of the Pro Circuit. This year is also Magic's 15th anniversary, which means there will be more Public Events and activities surrounding the main tournament than ever before.

It's going to be a giant celebration for all Magic fans!

$20,000 in Cash Prizes!

As in all high-level Magic tournaments, this national championship offers some very interesting prizes! In all, $20,000 will be handed out to the top 20 contestants... not to mention this year's novel feature, a shower of Pro Points that should delight professional players.

US Nationals: The Peak Competition!

The U.S. National Championships Tournament is not just for the qualifying players. For them it is the high point of the season, the moment when all those hours of training will finally pay off. For spectators it is an extraordinary spectacle simply to watch the best players in the country battle for the right to succeed Luis Scott-Vargas, the 2007 U.S. National Champion, and perhaps qualify for the 2008

World Championships. But that's far from all these three fabulous days have in store for you: dozens of Public Events, the chance to meet Richard Garfield and famous Magic artists, the possibility of finding yourself opposite a famous player or a member of the Magic R&D team in gunslinging game play, and lots of other activities... Whether or not you're qualified for the National Championship, this weekend is made for you!
